Preparing Schedule For Cross-Country Tour Of President

By GEORGE DURNO
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HYDE PARK, N. Y., June 29.—While President Roosevelt secluded himself in the privacy of his Hudson river family home today, secretaries and railroad agents scanned railroad and political maps to make up the schedule of the executive's cross-country trip that starts next week.

Telephone calls from half a dozen states poured into the summer White House to emphasize the importance of a stop of the presidential special and at least a rear-platform appearance of the President.

In his radio talk last Friday night Mr. Roosevelt served emphatic notice on congressional candidates that he reserved the right, not as President but as titular leader of the Democratic party, to speak freely in behalf of the New Deal platform.

Gives Up Strike.

Irvington, N. Y., June 29.—Hedi Heusser, her flaming head held high, marched out of the bedroom of wealthy Rollo K. Blanchard in his Irvington mansion today and gave up her ten-day sit-in strike for Mr. Blanchard's hand in marriage.

It was surrender, but Hedi turned it into triumph. She strode out with her red hair gleaming in the sun, bowed to the populace of Irvington, assembled for the occasion, and gave a statement to the press.

Report Shot Is Fired Upon Two Men Hunting For Young McCormick

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., June 29.—The week-old mystery of the disappearance of John Medill McCormick, 21-year-old scion of Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick Simms, was intensified today with reports of a shot fired upon two men searching for traces of the youth in the isolated Sandria mountains.

Patrolman William Murphy of the Albuquerque police force said that he and Dick Montoya of Bernalillo, N. M., a nearby village, were walking along a mountainside searching for McCormick's body when a gunshot rang out. A man stepped from behind a clump of brush on the side of a peak opposite them and shouted.

Murphy said he shouted back at the man but could not understand what he was saying.

Opinions Changed.

Reports of the shooting renewed expressions of opinion that young McCormick had been kidnaped or had met with foul play.

"It's hardly possible that he could be up there," Landis Arnold of the United States forestry service said, referring to the close search which

Ski School Or Divorce In Reno?

Paulette Goddard

Paulette and Charlie in other days

Could Paulette Goddard's mission to Reno, Nev., the divorce capital, be a divorce from Charlie Chaplin? Or is it to establish a ski school as she says it is? Friends and movie fans wonder as the actress takes the news spotlight with her Reno engagement. There still has been no confirmation that Chaplin and Miss Goddard are married. Her name has been linked with the comedian since 1934, when he brought her before the film public as his leading woman. Chaplin took Miss Goddard and her mother, as chaperone, on a world tour aboard his million-dollar yacht four years ago. It was at that time she and Chaplain were rumored married at sea.

First Veterans Are Assembling At Gettysburg

Blue And Gray Survivors Mingling In Last Great Reunion

YOUNGEST VETERAN, EARLY ON HAND IS 88

Program Marking 75th Anniversary Of Battle To Last Over Fourth

By J. WILLIAM THEIS
International News Service Staff Correspondent

GETTYSBURG, Pa., June 29.—Sleepy Gettysburg, town of bloody memories, turned out today to welcome the vanishing soldiery that brought it heroic fame 75 years ago.

This was the "last re-union"—their 75th anniversary—for some 8,000 living Civil War Veterans. As the number of Union and Confederate "boys" coming for the six-day celebration opening today increased, Gettysburg bustled anew. Special trains were bringing in the first large contingents.

No Survivor As Yet On Scene

A score of medal bedecked veterans already had motored to the site of this national shrine, but officials of the 75th anniversary commission had yet to greet a survivor of Gettysburg's historic struggle.

Of the 3,000 veterans expected, less than 50 were of the Blue and Gray ranks that fought across these rolling foothills in the battle that "turned the tide" of the Confederacy. None as yet had registered.

Early arrivals clustered with their assigned companions in the hotel lobby on Gettysburg square.

They had arrived singly, most of them from southern states, coming up through the Blue Ridge Mountains that General Robert E. Lee followed in his northern thrust in June, 1863.

Awaiting informal re-unions today, left to their own devices pending the first scheduled exercises Friday, the "Yanks" and "Rebels" who prefer to call themselves "comrades," mingled with a host of regular army men here to see to their care.

Housed In Tents

Some visited the three army camps where, starting tonight, they will be housed in regulation tents, fed in large army mess tents, and ushered to and from events across new laid boardwalks.

Three thousand army troops were encamped in their own quarters on the battlefield proper, near the scene of Pickett's famous Confederate charge.

There was proud reminiscing among veterans on hand.

Youngstown Man Given Sentence For Holdup Part

Donald M. Joyce, 31, Given Four To Eight Years By Pittsburgh Judge

CLAIMS ALIBI BEFORE COURT

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, June 29.—Donald Michael Joyce, 31, of Youngstown, O., today was found guilty of the Metro club holdup here and immediately was sentenced from four to eight years in the penitentiary despite an eloquent appeal.

Joyce was accused as one of the five men who, with revolvers and shotguns, entered the Metro club here on Feb. 14, 1932, and robbed 3 members of $6,000 in cash and several thousands in jewelry.

The convicted man contended that at the time of the holdup he was attending a birthday party in his honor at his home in Youngstown. His mother, father and two sisters corroborated this.

Declares Innocence.

After he was sentenced, Joyce was granted permission to speak. He declared:

"Before God and my mother, I am innocent. I was not here in Pitts-

Ceremonies Take Place At Chester, Pa., During Morning

SWEDISH CROWN PRINCE STILL ILL

(International News Service)

CHESTER, Pa., June 29.—Robert H. Jackson, solicitor general of the United States, today flayed organizations which "temporarily dominate a community and outrage its freedom" with local oppressions.

Jackson's remarks, made as he acted for President Roosevelt in accepting a monument presented to America by the Republic of Finland, were interpreted as aimed directly at Mayor Frank Hague and his "free speech" controversy in Jersey City. The solicitor general, however did not mention Hague's name.

Gift From Finland

Presentation of the gift from little Finland, which the president referred to Monday as "mighty in honor," featured this city's participation in the International celebration of the landing of Swedish and Finnish colonists on the shores of this continent 300 years ago.

His Excellency E. Rudolf W. Holsti, minister of foreign affairs of Finland, only European nation that has not defaulted on its war debts, presented the monument of Finnish granite to America. It stands on the site where pioneers established this community once known as Finland, in 1641.

Gov. George H. Earle received the monument in behalf of the Commonwealth. Previous to the dedication exercises, Prince Bertil, son of Crown Prince Gustaf Adolf of Sweden, and the entourage of Finnish and Swedish delegates, were received by Mayor William Ward, Jr., of Chester, in City Hall Square.

Crown Prince Ill

Prince Bertil journeyed from Philadelphia to act in the place of his father, who was forced to forego the tercentenary exercises because of illness.

Exercises here followed a continuation of the tercentenary program in Philadelphia earlier in the day when the Swedish Colonial Society presented Governor Printz Park on Tinicum Island to the Commonwealth. The park, marking the site of the colonial log mansion of the first governor of New Sweden, was dedicated in a brief address by Prince Bertil.

Later in the day, Prince Bertil was to attend a convocation of the University of Pennsylvania where the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws was conferred in absentia upon his father. Similar degrees were conferred upon J. Sigrid Edstrom, chairman of the Royal New Sweden Tercentenary Commission, and Wollmar F. Bostrom, Swedish minister to the United States.

So serious is her condition, doctors said, that she will undergo a blood transfusion this afternoon.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

R. H. Book of 237 Hillcrest avenue reports that he came onto two deer standing directly on the New Castle-New Wilmington highway at the junction of the Pulaski-Harbor road at the edge of the city while out driving after last week's annual reunion of the local high school alumni. He said the pair were in no hurry to move when cars approached.

A very clever and amusing sight was seen by Pa Newc yesterday. A miniature trailer on wheels was hitched on to a bicycle driven by a small boy. A perfect replica of a large trailer, the small one was complete even to the red and white awnings and the small windows and door. No doubt when permanently established, the miniature trailer would be a suitable abode for a dog.

When an adjacent garden prevented Haus avenue youth from using a vacant lot as a ball grounds, the resourceful youths turned the plot into a miniature golf course, tin cans serving as cups. They have developed quite a layout and the spot is proving popular both with the youngsters and grownups. The beauty of the proposition is that it costs them nothing.

Child Drowns In Newly Dug Well

Small Boy Slips From Mother And Falls Into Pit Near Volant Tuesday Afternoon

RECENT RAINS HAD FILLED HOLE

Slipping out of the house unnoticed by his mother, little James Pearson McAnany, aged 2 years and 8 months, son of Mr. and Mrs. William McAnany of R. F. D. No. 3, Volant, fell into the excavation of a new well, which was being dug in the rear of the McAnany home, and was drowned in about five feet of water Tuesday afternoon about 4 o'clock.

Mrs. McAnany missed the little tot and started looking for him, discovering the body within a few minutes. Hopeful that his life might be saved, the boy was rushed to the Jameson Memorial hospital, where he arrived at 4:45 o'clock. He was pronounced dead at the hospital, Coroner Charles Piper Byers stated.

The well had been dug to a depth of about 8 or 10 feet, and was filled to a depth of about five feet by the heavy rains over the week-end, Coroner Byers was informed.

In addition to the parents, there is one other child in the family surviving.

The body has been removed to the funeral home of Uber & Son at Slippery Rock and will be taken to the Wolf Creek U. P. church on Thursday for services at 2 o'clock in charge of Rev. S. R. Fulton. Burial will take place in the Wolf Creek U. P. cemetery.

Huge Sums Are Being Allotted To Prime Pump

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, June 29.—The Public Works Administration, pouring out millions for projects over the nation in an effort to prime the recovery pump, reached close to the $400,000,000 mark today in loans and grants.

Today's list of 65 projects—all for the war department construction—aggregated $48,000,000, bringing the total to $390,210,358 for the brief period since congress passed and the president signed the $3,755,000,000 Relief-Recovery Bill.

Allotments today came after a 24-hour pause in the speedy spreading of the tremendous funds. During that period only $2,000,000 in grants had been announced after several days on which grants and loans of about $100,000,000 a day had been passed out to communities practically everywhere.

James McClelland Rae, aged 62, of 303 Edgewood avenue, sealer of weights and measures for the city of New Castle and Lawrence county, passed away at 7:20 o'clock Tuesday evening in the Jameson Memorial hospital.

His death came following a stroke suffered Sunday evening in the downtown section. He was removed to the hospital following the stroke, and here he lapsed into a coma and did not again gain consciousness before his death.

Mr. Rae was a well known resident of this city, having spent nearly all of his life here. About 10 years ago he served the city as constable of the second ward. For many years, prior to this time, he was a merchant, with a grocery store located on South Mill street.

The position of city-county sealer of weights and measures was given to Mr. Rae by Mayor Charles E. McGrath at the beginning of his term of office. He filled this office very well, having had a great deal of experience in the scale business in previous years.

Mr. Rae was born in Minerva, O., on July 14, 1876. He with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rae, both deceased, moved to Pittsburgh a few years after he was born. He resided in Pittsburgh until the age of seven, when he and the family moved to New Castle.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Nettie McBurney Rae; one daughter, Mrs. Edward Fox of Scott street, and three sons, James, Edwin and Donald, all at home. Three grandchildren, Audrey, Shirley and Donald Fox, also survive.

He is also survived by two sisters, Miss Anna Rae and Mrs. John A. Earl, this city, and by two brothers, George of this city and Jack of Ravenna, O.

He was a member of the First Presbyterian church and an active member of the McKinney Bible class of that church.

The body has been removed to the Leyde funeral home, where friends may call. The family will be at the home between 7 and 9 o'clock Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the funeral home, with the Rev. Dr. John J. McIlvaine, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, in charge. Interment will be made on the family plot in Oak Park cemetery.

Says New Deal Has Passed Out Of Period Of Glory; Bogged Down By Aimlessness

(International News Service)

INDIANAPOLIS, June 29.—A repentant Republican party has purged itself of backward lookers and now seeks to regain touch with the common people. Representative Bruce Barton (R) of New York declared in the keynote address of the Republican state convention here today.

The New York congressman, viewed by many as a presidential possibility, frankly discussed what he said were the "sins of omission" of the G. O. P. in the past, but drew a picture of a party future designed to correct new deal mistakes.

Fumbled Ball

Describing the plight of the Republican party, Barton said:

"We had lost touch with the common people. This would have been a tragedy in any party. It was doubly so in our case because our party was born as the party of the common man. For 60 years we battled for economic betterment. But in the 1920's, almost without knowing it, we began to put on weight; we let ourselves be over-burdened with the riches of this world. We gave our sons and daughters to the worship of wealth instead of the service of their country.

"For more than half a century we had carried the ball of social progress. Then we fumbled the ball, and the Democrats picked it up and ran with it out of bounds.

"So much for our short-comings; they were sins of omission more than of commission. We have been plentifully punished; we have repented. We have purged ourselves of those who hoped that American could ever go back to the 'good old day.' We have put away the past, and our faces are toward the future."

Washington Is Nightmare

Barton praised President Roosevelt "for what I believe is his sincere interest in the welfare of the common man," but added:

"But the new deal has passed out

CLAIM POLITICAL SUPPORT URGED

By ROBERT A. McGILL
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, June 29.—Acting with unprecedented speed, the Senate campaign expenditures committee today plunged into the second phase of its investigation of a speech by Deputy W.P.A. Administrator Aubrey Williams admonishing W.P.A. workers to support "friends" in political contests.

After censuring Williams' address to the Workers Alliance of America, a W.P.A. workers' organization, as "unfortunate", the committee turned to a partial transcript of his remarks to determine the accuracy of his charges that he was misquoted in the press.

Study Transcript of Remarks

Headed by Senator Sheppard (D) of Texas, the chairman, the committe studied a transcript of Williams' remarks which was submitted to the press by the Workers' Alliance immediately after his address to the "white collar W.P.A. conference" on Monday.

Sheppard called for the transcript, said to have been taken by the Alliance without Williams'

Shelley To Present Evidence On Which Demand For Probe Is Based

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, June 29.—The proposed grand jury investigation into the Earle administration waited today on District Attorney Carl B. Shelley and the evidence he will present to Judge Paul N. Schaeffer for his consideration.

Upon the credibility of this evidence, which the Berks county jurist will pass upon, will depend the final verdict of whether or not there will be an investigation.

While Shelley prepared the evidence for presentation, Judge Schaeffer retired to his home in Reading to await the district attorney's call. As to when Shelley would be ready, all he would say was "sometime this week."

Cumberland Youth, Found On Box Car, Now Heading Home

A Cumberland, Md., youth found almost frozen on a Baltimore & Ohio freight train in the New Castle Junction yards today at 2:15 a. m., was enroute back home today.

Patrolman Arthur E. Lowers, of the B. & O. police force, nabbed the lad, who gave his name as Thomas Lepley, while the freight paused here. Alderman Wallace J. Ewing, before whom the youth was taken, agreed with Lowers that the boy should be sent home.

Officer Lowers planned to take the lad to an uncle in Pittsburgh before starting him towards Cumberland. Railroad police all along the line were to escort him.

The youth claimed he was 21, but he appeared to be more about 12 or 14.

Market Prices Continue Rise

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, June 29.—The stock market resumed its boom pace today, after the pause of the last two days, under a rush of buying which at one time sent the high speed ticker 3 minutes behind.

The result was a runup in prices paralleling those of the upsurge last week. Leaders spurted $1 to more than $4 a share while one issue, U. S. Gypsum, jumped more than $9.

Gains were general throughout the list with the best showing made by the building shares, the steels, chemicals, rails, motors and blue chips.

Rioting Occurs At Memel, Lithuania

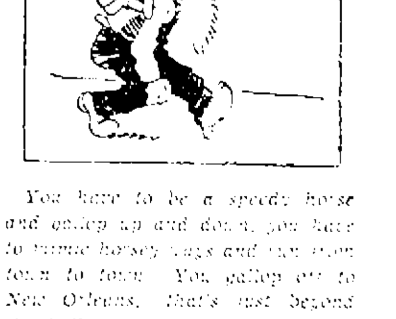

(International News Service)

MEMEL, Lithuania, June 29.—Tension ran high here today following serious rioting between Nazis and Lithuanians in which the 16-year-old son of a German policeman was killed.

For two hours fierce fighting raged in the streets of this Baltic seaport which was taken from Germany and given to Lithuania after the World War.

Fifty persons were injured during the wild rioting, some of them women, while 12 of the injured were described as in critical condition.

You have to be a speedy horse and gallop up and down, you have to mimic horsey ways and run from town to town. You gallop off to New Orleans, that's just beyond the hall, and then to Minneapolis, another port o call. Now Portland's by the kitchen sink, New York is cross the floor and Dallas is the living room, it's been St. Paul before. The rider is a heavy one, who drives his steed quite tough, from coast to coast is naught for him and never is enough. Giddap old horse, what is that creak, oh, well, it's just a knee, protesting at the galloping, the weather's eighty-three.

Promise British Shipping Concessions

Insurgents To Cease Attacks

Such Is Promise Indirectly Made In Reply To British Protests

ANGLO-ITALIAN ACCORD IS FACTOR

(BULLETIN)

(International News Service)

ROME, June 29.—"Discrimination" in favor of British ships in Spanish government ports was promised today by the insurgent bombing forces in a move to facilitate early operation of the Anglo-Italian accord.

Communicated to the Earl of Perth, British ambassador, by Count Ciano, Italian foreign minister, last night, concessions which Insurgent Generalissimo Francisco Franco is ready to make were revealed today by Virginio Gayda in the Giornale D'Italia.

Outlines Concessions.

Gayda, mouthpiece for Premier Mussolini, outlined the concessions as follows:

1. British ships navigating on the high seas will not be attacked by insurgent airplanes.

2. Airmen bombing Spanish government ports will, when possible, discriminate in favor of the British Union Jack.

3. "Free ports" will be established in Spanish government territory to be freely accessible for legitimate trade in international shipping.

Await Reaction.

London, June 29.—Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain's government waited anxiously today for Italian reaction to a blunt British warning that continued attacks on British ships in Spanish waters may wreck the Anglo-Italian friendship pact.

British Ambassador Lord Perth called on Italian Foreign Minister Count Galeazzo Ciano in Rome and informed him that it would be extremely difficult if not impossible to put the Anglo-Italian accord into operation if the insurgent air attacks on British vessels continue.

Acting under instructions from his government, the British envoy pointed out to Ciano the rising British public indignation over the insurgent raids. The chief purpose of Lord Perth's representations was to persuade Premier Mussolini to use his influence to induce Insurgent General Francisco Franco to halt the attacks.

Britain realizes Il Duce is not directly responsible for the attacks. Lord Perth was understood to have explained, but feels his influence with Franco is sufficient to end the bombings if he wishes.

burgh the day of the holdup, and as God is my judge I swear that I had nothing to do with it."

To this, Trial Judge John P. Egan replied:

"I am convinced that you are guilty. If you had been tried before me without a jury, I would have adjudged you guilty."

In passing sentence, the jurist remarked that the state of Ohio had refused to extradite any of the five suspects, and that Joyce was the only one tried here. Joyce was seized by city detectives as he emerged from Ohio penitentiary after serving five years and was brought here without formalities.

Two suspects in the Metro case never have been caught. Another was killed in a holdup in Steubenville. The fifth is in Western penitentiary. Joyce was identified by several victims of the holdup.

Barkley of Kentucky; Senator Robert Buikley of Ohio; Senator Elmer Thomas of Oklahoma, and Senator William G. McAdoo of California.

Scores of briefer and more informal stops were being added to the presidential itinerary. State, county and city chairmen from coast to coast kept the wires hot with suggestions and pleas that Mr. Roosevent make a bow in their territory. Particularly, members of the House were hoping for a favorable gesture.

Working in the Hyde Park study, the President pushed forward long-laid plans for another recovery drive, beginning July 1, when the new lend-spend appropriations become effective.

Williams asserted he urged W.P.A. workers to strengthen their organization. He said, "There was nothing political in what I said, nor were any political implications intended."

Promises Full Inquiry

Although some members of the committee intimated the incident was closed, Sheppard served notice the committee will make a full inquiry, and that it may summon Williams and David Lasser, national president of the Alliance, for questioning.

"By no means is the investigation closed," Sheppard said. "The committee will compare the transcript with Mr. Williams' letter to the committee and if it believes it is still necessary it will give Mr. Williams and Mr. Lasser an opportunity to discuss the speech further with the committee. We will be governed by what the transcript says."

Fisher, 92, of Pasadena, Cal., a member of the G. A. R., smilingly told how he married the widow of Captain John Gibson, a Confederate officer he fought against at Olustee, Fla. Mrs. Fisher, the daughter of a Confederate blockade runner, was at his side.

Her laugh was marked by its Georgian drawl as she countered a query on "which was the better husband?"

"Someone asked me that years later," she replied, "and I said they both were the same good men. How could there be any difference?"

Captain Gibson died a few years after the war. Fisher, who enlisted at 15 fought through 23 engagements.

Youngest Of Arrivals

Youngest of the veterans on hand early was Ira R. Wellman, 88, Danbury, Conn., Assistant Adjutant General on the staff of the G. A. R. National Commander. His first thought was for Capt. James Dinkins, of the 10th New Orleans Cavalry, to whom, 14 years ago, by Connecticut legislative authority, he returned that unit's flag. The banner was "baptised" at Gettysburg and captured at Cold Harbor, Va., he explained. Dinkins was reported too ill to attend this final re-union.

With Wellman was his wife, whom he met three years ago at the Grand Rapids National Encampment.

Only two Confederate veterans were here ahead of the special trains bringing their 800 anticipated comrades. They were J. Robert Paul, 105, of Charlotte, N. C., and Thomas B. Folks, 89, of Ocala, Fla.

Others on hand included:

Major Calvin Gilbert, 99, Gettysburg; Alvin Tolman, 91, Manatee, Fla.; Michael Hawk, 92, Sioux City, Iowa. Iowa department commander of the G. A. R.; Charles J. Rose, 95, Miami, Fla.; James W. Bishop, 90, Altadena, Cal.; James K. Polk Barker, 90, Columbus, O.; Dr. Overton H. Mechel, National G. A. R. commander, Los Angeles, and C. L. Bentley, 94, Fulton, Michigan.

Program For Week

Across the campus of Gettysburg College, grandstands were raised for Friday's ceremonies when Gov. George H. Earle of Pennsylvania, Secretary of War Harry Woodring will speak.

Saturday will be "Veterans Day," featured by a parade of 30 veterans' musical organizations and addresses by the respective commanders.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

on the banks of Neshannock creek, between North street and the Pennsylvania R. R. crossing, and the job will likely be finished this summer.

Looking at the Hettenbaugh Run, between the bridge and the demolished Mazur home, it will be observed that the bed of the creek, near the centre, is almost as high as the road near by. Considerable stone and gravel having been deposited there during the flood. It would not be necessary to have a very high raise in the run to again throw the water over the road.

Occupants of buildings near the corner of South Mercer and South streets have been interested during the past day in the antics of some young hawks, which from their small size, must be sparrow hawks. The young are not old enough to fly well and have been fluttering about using the one-time post office building as a base.

Yesterday afternoon the first two blocks of the newly paved Euclid avenue were opened to traffic for the first time. The part of the road finished is from Mercer street to Elaine street to Carlisle, and the fine amesite surface is a decided improvement. Work on this project, which has been done by the W.P.A. has been very quickly finished, and the quality of workmanship is of the highest.

Mr. Kanengeiser fed and watered the bird and did so today. The pigeon is still there. It is possible the bird is owned by someone in this vicinity.

REPORT SHOT FIRED UPON MEN HUNTING FOR M'CORMICK

had been made of the entire area in which McCormick and his companion, Richard Whitmer, whose body was later found at the foot of a cliff, disappeared.

Searchers early today scanned the skies in hopes of a letup in the heavy rains which late Tuesday ended temporarily efforts to find the youth.

The downpour lowered visibility, made the sheer slopes of the Sandia mountains more hazardous and mired down automobiles going between Albuquerque and the mountains.

Gov. Clyde Tingely of New Mexico, who personally has been directing activities of national guardsmen and state police in the search, returned to the state capitol at Santa Fe last night, taking with him the guardsmen. Only CCC enrollees and a few officials and Mrs. Simms and several friends remained actively in the search.

Efforts to find the missing youth have centered about the cliff at the bottom of which the body of Whitmer was found last Friday.

of its period of glory, and is now bogged down in the mire of aimlessness and failure. I am saying only what every man and woman knows, and what the polls of public opinion are saying more loudly every week. It is painfully evident that great reformers almost invariably fail as administrators. From the administrative angle, Washington is a nightmare."

The Democratic administration is "liquidating" the middle classes which have no friends in the new deal and which formerly were called the backbone of the nation, the speaker asserted.

A sports committee with events for all, and prizes for the winners, has completed every arrangement for a good time.

Mrs. Evelyn Goodwin, worthy matron, extends a most cordial invitation to all members of the Order of the Eastern Star Chapters, their families and friends, to join this Cathedral Chapter this evening, at 6:30 o'clock, in the grove of Cascade Park, and share in the festivities.

Included in the assemblage were members of the Palsy-Walsy club, relatives and friends, who met at the Ray street home of Mrs. Walter Meister, later going to the new Wagner residence on Court street, where the shower took place.

Upon returning to Meisters, attention was given to bridge and 500 contests. Lunch was served at the close by Mrs. Meister, aided by Gladys and Ruth Curry.

At an appropriate hour, the hostess led the members into the dining room where a lunch was served. Mrs. Connie Daltorio was a special guest of the evening.

SIGMA DELTA CHI AT THOMPSON HOME

Miss Mary Katherine Brunhause, a member of the Sigma Delta Chi of Harrisburg, was guest speaker at the regular business meeting of Sigma Delta Chi held Tuesday evening in the Euclid avenue home of Joan Thompson.

Miss Brunhause told of the formation and activities of the Harrisburg club, and offered helpful suggestions to the New Castle group.

Mrs. Travis French was present at this meeting and accepted the club's invitation to become its sponsor.

President Isobel Douglas presided over the business meeting, during which routine business was settled. Dues, fines and membership standing were discussed, and Mrs. French was unanimously voted an honorary member of the club. Geraldine Hadsell was also accepted as a member. Plans were arranged by the program chairman, Sallie Wilson, for a picnic and swimming party to be held on Tuesday, July 5, at the New Wilmington Community park. Future activities were considered, including studying first aid, tennis and community service.

Committees appointed by the president were: Constitution committee, Unithea Stack, Pauline Lynch and Evelyn Lochard; court committee, Betty Bloomer, Sallie Wilson and Joan Thompson.

Following the business session an amusing contest was conducted by Sallie Wilson.

McKEE HOME SCENE OF CLASS PICNIC

The Twentieth Century Bible class of the First Presbyterian church, held their annual picnic event at the home of Mrs. Joel S. McKee of 217 East Edison avenue, Tuesday noon, it being in the form of an "indoor" party.

Garden flowers decorated the rooms and the numerous small tabes were centered with clusters of the same, lending a colorful setting. Mrs. A. A. Webb and Mrs. J. A. Sechler, together with their committee of aides, took charge.

President Mrs. C. N. Moore, presided over the business period, and the group singing that ensued, was led by Mrs. J. J. McIlvaine. She also conducted an amusing "Brain Twister" feature which involved everyone.

A shower of good wishes was extended to Mrs. C. N. Moore who is leaving in July for Maine, and also to Mrs. McIlvaine who too, with her family, will be departing for a vacation later on, by the assemblage.

After a hearty vote of thanks to Mrs. McKee for her gracious hospitality, the group adjourned, until September 27, when regular sessions will be launched with a tureen dinner in the church dining room.

"OLD WOMAN IN SHOE" MARKS NAOMI PROGRAM

A delightful old-woman-who-lived-in-a-shoe, portrayed by Betty Reed, cleverly presented her children in a juvenile recital for the entertainment of the record number of women attending the quarterly tea of the Naomi Circle of Highland United Presbyterian church Tuesday afternoon.

The stage was set with a large shoe background and each performer entered the stage through a door in the heel of the shoe. At the close of the program the group gathered around the old woman presenting a charming picture of the familiar old nursery rhyme. The feature was launched with the introduction of the old-woman-who-lived-in-a-shoe, who explained:

"I'm the old woman who lives in the shoe.
I have so many children I don't know what to do.
So I thought that I'd let them perform for you."

The following program was then presented:

Jean Ann Davis—Recitation, "Welcome."

Bob Ferguson—Vocal solo, "When He Cometh," accompanied by his sister, Julia Ferguson.

Ruth Prosser—Recitation, "The Lotus."

Charlene Vogan—Piano solo, "The Rosary," by Ethelbert Nevin.

Jane Throop—Recitation, "Jonathan Bing."

Linna and Jane Lee—Two piano number, "The Wood Nymph's Harp," by Florence P. Rea.

Patricia Ann Smith—Vocal solo, "The Swing," accompanied by Mrs. Glenn McCracken.

Barbara and Arthur Bergland—Piano duet, "Chatter," by Bachmann.

Billy Evans—Vocal solo, "Hear Him Calling," accompanied by his sister, Ruth Evans.

Julia Ferguson—Piano solo, "Elfin Dance," by Edvard Grieg.

Arthur Bergland, Willie Nelson, John Carlin—Piano, "Iolas," by Barton Bratton.

Bill Throop—Piano solo, "Minuet In G," by Beethoven.

Following the program Mrs. D. L. Ferguson and Mrs. J. W. McCreary poured tea at a beautifully appointed tea table, decorated in predominating tones of yellow and blue. A large yellow bowl of summer flowers was the centerpiece, guarded by candelabra of lighted blue and yellow tapers. Mrs. J. S. Martin, Mrs. E. F. Henderson, Mrs. Ward Reimold and Mrs. E. L. Thompson, members of the executive committee of the circle, which sponsored this tea, served as aides, assisted by Mrs. J. A. G. Gormley, Mrs. Leonard Kisthart and Ethel Moore.

Preceding the program a brief business meeting was held with President Mrs. J. S. Martin presiding. Mrs. June Bernard led the group in singing, first, and then routine business was discussed. At this time it was announced that Mrs. R. L. Wallace will head Unit 4 of the Naomi Circle for the ensuing three months.

Eighty-five women were present, including Mrs. Mary Thompson, from Tarentum. The affair was generally acknowledged to be the most successful of its type ever undertaken by the Naomi Circle, and the program to be the cleverest and most interesting.

R. U. Club

Members of the R. U. club met for a hamburg fry at Cascade Park on Tuesday evening at eight o'clock. Following the hamburg fry, they enjoyed the park amusements and played various games, prizes falling to Mrs. Helen Richards, Mrs. Margaret Fantia, Miss Phyllis Cherol, Mrs. Clara Biondi and Mrs. Rose Roselli.

A feature was the fat and skinny races, Mrs. Clara Biondi winning the former and Mrs. Helen Scopio, the latter.

Class Picnic.

Mrs. W. J. Holmes of Englewood avenue was hostess Tuesday to 22 members of the Loyally Sunday school class of the West Middlesex Presbyterian church for an all day picnic.

A delicious tureen dinner was served at noon, and the afternoon hours were spent informally.

1919 Kensington

Mrs. E. G. Hoover received the members of the 1919 Kensington in her home on Winter avenue Tuesday evening. Various games were played, prizes being awarded to Mrs. Eliza Ann Troutman and Mrs. Mary Sidley. Lunch was served by candle light at the small tables, the hostess being assisted in serving by her daughter, Eloise.

In two weeks Mrs. Lucy Covert, East Washington street, will be hostess to the group.

ST. JOHN'S SOCIETY HAS JUNE ASSEMBLY

Confirming the tradition that the June meeting is one of the loveliest of the year, was the gathering of the Women's Missionary Society of St. John's Lutheran church Tuesday evening, held at the spacious home of Mrs. William Gustafson on the Pulaski road.

An inspection of the beautiful grounds surrounding the Gustafson home proved to be one of the main attractions of the evening.

Mrs. Edna Wood had charge of the program, and she made a very interesting presentation of her topic, "Christ and the Moslem World," with various members of the group taking part.

President Mrs. William Emery presided over the business meeting during which routine matters were transacted. Plans were discussed for the trip to Zelienople on Thursday for the annual "Donation Day" at the Orphans' Home. Several committee reports were made, in particular the report of the Inner Mission Roll Call Committee, by Mrs. Anna Leonhart, congregational chairman of the committee. Reports were also given by Mrs. William Gustafson and Mrs. Emory Wolf, representatives to the recent W. G. M. S. convention in New Wilmington.

At the close of the business meeting the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Raymond Gustafson, served a dainty lunch. Later an informal social period was enjoyed. Mrs. Elsie Hess, of Texas, who is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Emory Wolf, was a special guest.

The July meeting of the society will be held at the home of Mrs. Anna Leonhart on Maryland avenue.

The couple was presented with a lovely set of fiesta ware as a gift of remembrance for the event.

The bride, a Titan blonde, was lovely in a street length gown of British tan lace over taffeta with white accessories. She wore a corsage of orchids. Mrs. Swanson wore a navy ensemble, also with white accessories, her corsage being gardenias.

The bridal couple left immediately for Philadelphia, where they will attend the 300th anniversary of the settling of the Swedish colonists. They will also visit other points of interest in the east. Upon returning they will occupy their new home on West Poland avenue, Bessemer.

THE BUY-AND-GIVE PLAN OF RELIEF

SOME business organizations are represented as looking with misgivings upon the Government's plan to acquire, through the WPA, surplus stocks of men's clothing and to distribute them directly to the needy. While this system may simplify relief methods, it would appear that the apprehension of business men concerning it is not without cause.

As the New York Times notes in a news article, the first tenders sent out for men's clothing "asked for bids based on delivery at factories or storage points, cutting out entirely retailers and handlers." If this plan were used widely it is conceivable that many persons, engaged in the handling of garments after they leave the factories would be thrown out of work.

Moreover, the chief purpose of the Government's new spending campaign is to provide purchasing power so that there will be a larger market for manufactured goods. The buy-and-give program has to do with Government purchase of excess production which might glut the market. But if producers know that a Government well supplied with funds is ready at all times to buy up surpluses is there not a possibility of chronic over-production which might weaken the aims of the spending drive?

Relief is an important feature of the spending-lending campaign, but it should be provided intelligently. If there is any likelihood that the Government's buy-and-give plan will tend to create new unemployment and raise difficult problems for business it should be studied with great care before being given broad application.

BAD BILL PROPERLY KILLED

Negative action is sometimes of vastly more importance than affirmative action. This is especially true in connection with lawmaking bodies.

It was strikingly evidenced, in fact, by the refusal of the late Congress to approve the bill requiring corporations to get licenses from the Federal Government before doing business.

Such a system would amount to dictatorial totalitarianism at its worst. It would introduce in America the corporate state with absolute bureaucratic control over every phase of economic activity.

Memories of Blue Eagle days are bad enough. But this business licensing plan would mean the wholesale collapse of free enterprise and the advent of political interference with all forms of commercial and industrial interest.

It is to be hoped that reports as to revival of the licensing bill in the next Congress are ill-founded. The American people are not ready to surrender everything to the crafty politician and the bureaucrat with delusions of grandeur.

PAYING FOR "ADVENTURE"

"The ultimate end of the current incident still is very distant." Not a shred of comfort is discernible in this official government statement to the Japanese people rapidly being impoverished by the unprovoked and undeclared war in China. What started out as a three months' adventure sponsored by the military clique without original Parliamentary authority has dragged on 11 months. The end seems much further off today than it did at the beginning.

Japanese funds and Japanese credit abroad are dwindling. Japanese troops are disseminated over a dangerously wide area, with Chinese armies consolidated and by no means dismayed. Because of the mounting cost of living the Japanese Government, invoking the mobilization law, plans to fix prices. Store keepers warn that if they are fixed below the profit level, they will have to shut up shop. Raw materials will be imported for war purposes, and also to manufacture for re-export. Meanwhile the people at home are bidden to consume less and content themselves with substitutes. The war is far from popular, and the tightening of belts and drainage of man power will make it less so.

Apparently the Japanese are on the brink of a thorough regimentation, with private property and the direction of private lives directly subject to the state. And to what end? To gratify the ambitions and minister to the glory of a military class whose business is war. It is a war that is costing Japan her balance of trade, lowering living standards, forfeiting the respect of all decent nations. Hope of emerging from this welter as a military power of the first rank is daily more evanescent. Meanwhile to the North there broods, without revealing an inkling of its ultimate policy, Soviet Russia, armed to the teeth and with an opinion of its own as to China's status in the long future.

The piper, whoever he may turn out to be, will have a lengthy bill for Japan's dancing on the continent.

ON THE PUBLIC PAY ROLL

A headline in the Baltimore Sun, "Wage-Hour Enforcement to Provide Hundreds of Jobs," might be taken to mean that strict enforcement of wages and hours legislation will increase employment.

The story under the headline, however, tells the story of a promised increase in employment in just one place—the Federal pay roll. Nobody can say in advance how many new government jobs will be created by the wages and hours bill.

At its peak the NRA had 4,500 employes. Because the wages and hours bill provides for use to a degree of existing administrative machinery in the Department of Labor it is expected that new jobs created by it will be counted in the hundreds rather than in the thousands. The industrial wage boards to be established later will probably create a few hundred jobs, too. Under NRA 100 codes covered 90 per cent of workers affected by the law; it is unlikely that the number of industrial wage boards will exceed 100. Members of the boards will be paid by the day when they work; the clerical force is likely to be on an annual pay roll.

This is merely one side of the picture. It is easy to create employment on the Federal pay roll by enacting a law establishing a new Federal agency. The real question to ponder, however, is what the instrument of that agency will do to employment, outside the Federal pay roll. In a recent letter to stockholders of General Motors, Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., predicted that the effect of wages and hours legislation would be to increase unemployment and to injure the very persons who it was designed to benefit.

A swap of new jobs for a few hundred persons on the Federal pay roll for lost jobs for thousands elsewhere would be a bad bargain.—New York Sun.

The Parent Problem

MORE ON JUVENILE CRIME

YESTERDAY we showed that the economic causes of crime have probably been unduly emphasized; that, moreover, the belief that our foreign born and their children are chief contributors to crime is a myth—that the facts are quite the contrary.

What about our feeble-minded as contributors to crime? Well, they do their bit; hardly more. Oh, yes, the average level of intelligence of the boys in our reformatories is lower than that of boys of the same age outside. But we must remember that many of the more intelligent boys who really are delinquent escape the reformatory, even the juvenile court. Their parents have more influence and ways to evade justice.

Yet, fewer of these brighter youth who go on in crime escape the penitentiary, even though more of them may be paroled. Indeed, the distribution of intelligence in our penitentiaries is about the same as that outside. This has been scientifically established, the Army Alpha test having been given to the penitentiary population of Indiana, Illinois and Ohio several years ago by Professor Carl Murchison, an eminent psychologist of Clark university. No doubt the inmates of our federal prisons rank higher in intelligence than the average population. A man has to be pretty smart, as a rule, it would seem, to earn board and keep in a federal penitentiary.

Leading Cause Of Crime

Decline in religion, growing interest in things made with hands and bought with price, and decreasing interest in things non-material or spiritual, probably comprise the leading single cause of crime increase. For the sake of a better citizenship, I believe we could afford to encourage religious programs, as a rule.

Next to the decline of religion, I would place relaxing of restraints in the home, lessening of parental self-control, and the breaking home, as contributor to crime increases—I used to put them foremost, as my readers know. Back of the lessening of home restraints has been the philosophy spread abroad by gifted writers, for the last 30 years or so, interpreted by parents to mean they should merely reason with their children while they are very young, but never should lay the hand on them to restrain them.

Practically alone I have consistently pleaded for the return of the good old-fashioned spank in the child's early years to train him in the meaning of NO—the alphabet of citizenship—respect for the rights of others and regard for authority, in a home of understanding, sympathy and love; by parents who are self-controlled; with the hope that all physical punishment might be abandoned before he enters school, with little punishment of any sort required thereafter. Citizenship begins at home, and by the home is molded more than by any other influence.

But alas! those parents, by and large, with most education and influence and family background, have been among the first to accept the doctrine of no-restraint. The worst in their children is imitated by children of less opportunity. The hope of checking crime is in the remnant, in the so-called best families of America, provided they will bring up their children in a sort of citizenship worthy to be emulated.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

CHINA'S PLIGHT

Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., is the National Chairman of the United Council for Civilian Relief in China, while his cousin, the President, is still "chairman" of Relief for Americans. Each seems to be very solicitous for the other fellow's welfare.

Now Theodore, Jr., announces that his information from China is that the outbreak of a cholera epidemic in Central China has swelled the number of diseases now epidemic among Chinese civilian refugees to a ghastly total of six.

More than 50,000,000 non-combatant Chinese, the majority of whom are women and children, now are threatened by virulent epidemics of cholera, typhus, diphtheria, typhoid, amoebic and bacillic dysentery and scarlet fever.

Quoting late dispatches from Shanghai and the interior received at the headquarters of the United Council for Civilian Relief in China, Colonel Roosevelt has painted a picture of appalling disaster and need.

"More than 100,000 permanently destitute refugees are encamped in the Shanghai International Settlement," he declared. "Across the river at Nantao is one camp where 45,000 refugees, almost exclusively women and children, have food on hand for less than three weeks. Also, the new cholera epidemic has now spread to Pootung near Shanghai and wide areas there are virtually death houses.

"In addition to the humanitarian aspects of these conditions, which are horrifying the civilized world, there is urgent reason why Americans should be interested in helping to provide the means to control these epidemics. There is a grave danger that the epidemics may spread beyond the borders of China and constitute an unprecedented menace to the health of the world. With our speedy methods of transportation and the constant travel between Asia, America and the European countries, there is the ever-present possibility that an epidemic starting in one portion of the globe may spread to other places thousands of miles distant. Therefore, no matter how much we may be stirred by the humanitarian appeal of the Chinese civilian population, we have also a personal interest in the control of these epidemics."

O'Mahoney's Views On Probes
Is Seeking Facts For Remedy
New Dealers Term Him Reactionary

BY CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Columnist

WASHINGTON, June 29. Senator Joseph C. O'Mahoney of Wyoming talks, in general, like a fairly advanced liberal. Nevertheless he was prominent in the successful congressional fight against President Roosevelt's plan to reorganize (or, some folk put it, to "pack") the federal supreme court. This aroused the ire of most New Dealers, who have had a spell of referring to O'Mahoney as at least a very conservative Democrat, if not an outright reactionary.

Now, however, he is leader of what commonly is described as the "monopoly investigation" to proceed during congress' adjournment period, until next January or until an extra session is called, if one IS called earlier than that.

And the quite popular supposition is that this will be a decidedly radical quiz.

So what is the senator:

A rightist or a leftist?

AS STEWART CLASSES HIM

From the Wyoming solon's fashion of expressing himself, I would class him as a liberal, but decidedly a conservative one.

He denies that his investigation properly is a "monopoly investigation." It is, he says, an investigation of certain recently changed conditions which we must adapt ourselves to, if democracy is to survive—if we are to escape surrendering liberty in favor of hoped for security, like Russia, Germany and Italy, in their various different ways.

"Should we Earthlings" suggests the senator, "be transported suddenly to Mars, and having arrived there willy-nilly, refuse to modify our policies according to the necessities of Martian life we would find that our Earthly standards did not fit Mars and that Mars did not fit our Earthly standards, either."

VAST CHANGES

Just so here at home.

"Within memory of men I have known personally," relates the Cheyenne lawmaker, "this was a nation with a Wild West and with free farms for urbanites who found their industrial status unsatisfactory to them. Today, within a generation, the urbanite has no place to go if the city no longer offers employment to him."

Then the senator touches on the issue of monopoly—or corporatism.

He finds no fault with little corporations, which management itself capitalizes. The ones he is somewhat skeptical of are the big ones, which the public capitalizes but which management controls.

He mentions that fewer than one-half of one per cent of all our corporations control more than 50 per cent of the capital invested in all of them.

ILLS OF CONCENTRATION?

This may be all right, the senator agrees.

But, he adds, the increase in concentrations has been accompanied by an alarming increase in unemployment.

Is there any connection between the two developments?

That's a question to which the

Their "Misfortune"

Washington, June 29

A GREAT deal of saccharin nonsense has been written about the Roosevelt family since it got into the White House, but the recent wedding of the last of the Roosevelt children seemed to have developed a particularly sticky and sugary stream of journalistic comment.

NO ONE wants to detract from the highly spoken of qualities of the Roosevelt boys and girls. They may be, as one writer greasily proclaims, "just a wholesome, happy lot of kids," whose amusing performances, such as squirting fizz water in the face of a French Mayor, seem charming to all except a few old crabs whose outlook on life is soured and who never were really young themselves. Nevertheless when long articles are written solemnly deploring the publicity in which the members of the President's family are so constantly bathed and from which, so it is said, they cannot escape—and when we are asked to be sympathetic with the members of this unfortunate family, unable to "lead their own lives" because of the great "misfortune"—for them—of having the head of the family President of the United States—when this point is reached, it does seem that, perhaps, something has happened to our sense of proportion.

CLEARLY, the idea sought to be conveyed is that the publicity that comes to the mother, the wife and the children of the President is distinctly distasteful to them—that they would vastly prefer to avoid the limelight and "lead their own lives" unnoticed quietly, far away from the prying public and pestiferous reporters. Undoubtedly there have been White House families of which this has been, at least measurably, true, but it is a novel thought so far as the Roosevelts are concerned. And it isn't exactly easy to harmonize it with the indorsement of baking powders and patent beds, the employment of literary agents and a record-breaking output of magazine and newspaper articles, the writing of books and columns, innumerable radio broadcasts, lecture tours, political speeches and other semi-public activities in which the individual members of the family, almost without exception, have furiously indulged in the last five years —and still do.

CONSIDERING merely the known facts and judging solely from the open record, taking no account of the things that do not appear, certainly the ordinary man would be justified in thinking that, so far from being averse to publicity, all three generations of the reigning Roosevelts revel in it, wallow in it, adore it, itch for it, particularly love it when it can be translated into dollars. In face of the overwhelming evidence to this effect, to be told seriously that they are really "tormented" by publicity makes one rub the eyes and wonder what has happened to the English language. Do words mean what they used to mean or is everything just completely screwy?

THERE simply is no way to reconcile such an assertion with the recorded realities. If ever there was a family which constantly and consistently sought publicity this is the family. Take, for example, the single case of the President's wife. It is a very sweeping assertion, but it undoubtedly is true that in the past five and a half years Mrs. Roosevelt has spoken and written publicly more words in the same length of time than any other woman in the history of the world. Her output has been far beyond all previous records and for most of it she has been paid. The fact that a considerable part of her receipts are given to charity does not alter the fact. In lesser degree other members of the family have emulated her example except in giving the proceeds to charity. "Tormented" by publicity? Let's stop joking. Let's be frank. This family loves publicity to such an extent that when it does not come to them

New Members In Reading Club At Public Library

Summer Reading Club Is Popular With Young Borrowers Of Library Here

Still high in popularity with the young borrowers of the local free public library, the Summer Reading club, started several weeks ago by Miss Alice Joyce, children's librarian, is continually adding new members.

The members already taken into the club continue to read books and report to the library in an effort to win membership in the Blue Star club. Six new members have been admitted to this Blue Star club, Miss Joyce stated today.

Latest members in the Summer Reading club are Louise Jasper, Mary McClanahan, Ruth Stewart, Carl White, Walter White, Bobby Dansie, Bruce Brown, Edward Burr, Vivian Ketola, Anne Pitzer and Robert Pitzer.

Following bring the Blue Star club membership up to 12, since the reading club was formed: Mary Christos, Katherine Randy, Dorothy Maul, Louise Coles, John Coles and Cray Pitzer.

Nazarene Revival Is Drawing Large Crowds Nightly

Interest and attendance have been increasing at the summer revival campaign at the Nazarene church, Falls and Beaver streets. The pastor, Frank C. Lehman, reports that the attendance is the largest of any of the summer revivals of the church. Monday night the crowd packed the building to hear Rev. Mason Lee of Huntington, W. Va., tell his life story, "From the Boxcar to the Pulpit". Tuesday night's crowd was nearly as large.

Rev. Lee's text Tuesday night was I Peter 4:17, "For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God and if it first begins at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?" He emphasized the danger of Christians growing lukewarm and losing interest in church and in God.

At the Tuesday night service Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Washington sang "You Must Unload", "The Old Rugged Cross", "The Ninety and Nine" and "Follow Me", it being special request song night.

Tonight will be Sunday School night when recognition will be made of Sunday school scholars from every school. Thursday is to be Fathers night. Friday is Mothers night. Saturday night is Divine Healing night. Sunday will be the closing day of the campaign. The revival party will sing and preach at each service.

Hawks Continues Bible Studies At Calvary Tabernacle

The present special series of Bible studies in the Book of Jeremiah, the Prophet, which is being conducted by Dean William S. Hawks of the Keystone School of the Bible, at the Calvary Gospel Tabernacle is attracting scores of people.

Special music is a feature of each night's services. Mr. Hawks will continue with this series on the prophecy of Jeremiah nightly this week, except Saturday, and will conclude his ministry at the tabernacle on Sunday with three services.

Dr. J. J. McIlvaine To Preach Sunday

Dr. J. J. McIlvaine, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will preach at the Sunday morning services of that church on July 3. Contrary to the belief of many of the congregation, Dr. McIlvaine will not leave on his vacation until the second Sunday of July, at which time there will be a guest minister.

There will be no services at the church on Sunday evening due to the union service at Cascade Park.

TOWNSEND CLUB

Townsend Club No. 3 of the East Side, will meet Thursday evening at 7:45, at the Ukrainian church, corner Stanton and Rose avenues. Final arrangements will be made for those desiring to attend the gathering at Warren, Ohio, to be addressed by Dr. Francis E. Townsend, Friday afternoon.

Gettysburg Speech

(International News Service)

GETTYSBURG, June 29.—Here follows the text of Lincoln's immortal Gettysburg address:

"Fourscore and seven years ago our fathers brought forth on this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are createad equal.

"Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation, or any other nation so conceived and so dedicated, can long endure. We are met on a great battlefield of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field as a final resting place for those who here gave their lives that that nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this.

"But, in a larger sense, we cannot dedicate, we cannot consecrate, we cannot hallow this ground. The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here, have consecrated it far above our poor power to add or detract. The world will little note nor long remember what we say here: but it can never forget what they did here. It is for us the living, rather, to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us: That from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the full last measure of devotion: That we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain: That this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom: And that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth."

INCORPORATION BILL

Senators O'Mahoney and William E. Borah also had a bill in congress at the last session, requiring interstate corporations to take out federal charters.

To illustrate:

Senator O'Mahoney recalls the organization of a corporation in the state of Delaware to develop oil lands in his home state of Wyoming. He does not think Delaware was the proper state in which to incorporate a company to do business in Wyoming.

SEEKS INFORMATION

"And I believe" says Senator O'Mahoney "that our bill (Senators O'Mahoney's and Borah's) could have been passed at the last session if we had pushed it.

"But we realized that the problem is too complicated for a one or two man solution."

Hence the "monopoly investigation."

It is not an anti-big business "probe" Senator O'Mahoney assures us, it is a search for honest-to-goodness economic information. He is a convincing speaker.

The Great Game Of Politics

they hunt it. Actually, they go after it with a professional agent. That happens to be the truth.

AND it is a "misfortune" for his sons that their father is President, is it? He is a handicap to their careers, is he? Well, isn't that too bad! It is particularly bad in the case of the eldest son, Jimmie, who has been practically ruined. All that James, poor fellow, has been able to do, in a few years and at the age of 31, is to make himself the most successful insurance agent in the world. All he has been able to do is, starting without a nickel to his name, to become a millionaire in five years. Of course, the fact that his father is President didn't help him to sell his insurance policies to people either in or out of the Government. Oh, no! Of course, the fact that his father is President didn't open various doors for nice fat profits to him, or provide unexampled opportunities for richly feathering his nest.

NOT at all. He carved out his astonishing success despite the handicap of being the President's son and regardless of the ethical standards that make it improper—or at least very bad taste—for a person thus placed to commercialize the White House or capitalize the Presidency. Oh, yes? And probably their relation to the White House incumbent was a handicap also to Elliot Roosevelt, who has now acquired his own radio broadcasting company, and to Mr. Boettinger, the son-in-law, who, the month after the 1936 election, closed the gap between a reporter and a publisher in one jump. It would be comforting to report that these statements about the Roosevelt sufferings from publicity and the "misfortune" it has been to the boys to have their father President were satirically made. But that is not the case. Incredible as it seems, they are solmenly—and almost tearfully—promulgated.

The congregation of rites at the Vatican in Rome is investigating miracles attributed to her in preliminary proceedings for her beatification. Mother Philippine introduced the community of the Visitation nuns into the U. S. in 1818. She died at St. Charles, Mo. If she is elevated to sainthood, she will be the second American saint.

The Human Side Of The News

(By EDWIN C. HILL)

Copyright 1938 King Features Syndicate, Inc.

Mr. James J. Tunney keeps insisting that a real good heavyweight fighter could knock the block off a gorilla. It was the late Arthur Brisbane who illustrated his own pet theory of the emphasis value of repetition by reiterating that if you put a gorilla in a ring with seven Tarzans only one creature would leave the ring alive, and that would be the ape.

I suppose that Mr. Tunney should be rated as superior to the great editor, as a fight expert. He had the experience and a little luck, and had the sense to quit while the quitting was good. Mr. Brisbane once donned the gloves with John L. Sullivan and lasted longer than most of the Boston Boy's opponents when he was in half-way decent condition and fairly sober. But the weight of experience lies with Tunney, as much respect as I have for Mr. Brisbane's opinions.

Gene himself can't be considered. He's been out of the fighting game for ten years. He's getting a little portly. He has abandoned the science of sockology for the study of Shakespeare, and has taken up editing as a light sideline. If you subscribe to the Connecticut Nutmeg, you will have the benefit of Mr. Tunney's wit and wisdom on all matters which appertain to sport, and even on subjects not usually found on the sport page.

A regular old he-gorilla weighs about 500 pounds, as against 200 for a heavyweight human, and I can't give the human a chance. He ought to be about 10-to-1 to win in Tim Mara's book. I don't see how the human could get close enough to land a haymaker without being caught in the paralyzing grip of those huge and fantastically long arms which distinguish the gorilla.

Of all the fighters I've ever known, the only ones which might have had even an outside chance with our remote relation were not the powerful punchers like Jim Jeffries and Jack Dempsey, but supremely gifted boxers like Tunney, Jim Corbett and Kid McCoy—men fast as the flick of a whip, who could dance in and out and all around with the speed and grace of a Russian ballerina.

Speaking of Corbett, that champion was the first pugilist of our times to contribute some lustre of gentility to the ring, to professional pugilism and those fine arts of swift attack and impenetrable defense which Gene Tunney so skilfully utilized in jabbing his way to the front.

Boxing is a very old sport, almost as old as the history of the human race, and for 3,000 years and more it has projected some extraordinary personalities into the parade of life. The ancient poets began the saga which the modern sports writers continue today. Perhaps the first sports writer was a Greek named Homer. You may have read a couple of books by him, the Iliad and the Odyssey. Homer wrote the story of the boxing match between Epens and Euryalus in the 23rd book of the Iliad. Virgil wrote a rattling good fight story in his Aeneid.

Anyway, Gene Tunney had several thousand years of important tradition behind him when he started to stab his way to fame. He had the grit and ambition to make something out of himself. I wouldn't be at all surprised to see him land in Congress some day, or even go higher. There's plenty of precedent for champion boxers succeeding in political life. England had a champion once named John Gully, and his career is so amazingly like Tunney's that it's worth talking about.

Like Tunney, he had no real hankering for the life of a prize-fighter, or for associating with fighters and their hangers-on. Like Tunney, he visioned what a championship would bring him, and deliberately set out to win it. At the age of twenty John Gully had three ambitions. To become heavyweight champion of England, to own a Derby winner and to sit in Parliament. Coldly and scientifically he boxed his way to the championship. His horse, St. Giles, flashed home first in the Derby. When he ran for Parliament he was opposed by a noble lord who spoke for his class when he attacked the impudence of a former fighter for daring to aspire to a seat in the House of Commons.

But the fighter was game and made a useful member, and kept on moving through life in the same good-humored way, a country gentleman and a magistrate, with a fine estate, until he got done with life at eighty.

POTATO WART WAR IS BELIEVED WON

HARRISBURG, June 29.—After twenty years of unremitting warfare against the destructive potato wart the Bureau of Plant Industry, Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture, has eradicated the disease on several fronts and has it under control in all infected areas.

J. Hansell French, State Secretary of Agriculture, said today that the potato wart eradication project will be continued with three objectives: to prevent the spread of the disease, to maintain a constant guidance in re-planted and susceptible areas and to study the wart organism with special emphasis on control and ultimate eradication.

Cook Forest Park Is Popular Spot

Large Acreage Available To Vacationers And Campers With Fine Accommodations

HARRISBURG, June 29.—Cook Forest Park in western Pennsylvania is one of the outstanding recreational developments in the Commonwealth because of its importance both as a forest monument and as a popular area for vacationists and campers.

Comprising 6,055 acres, located along the winding Clarion river in Jefferson and Clarion counties, on the Lakes-to-Sea highway, Cook Forest Park contains the largest remaining stand of virgin timber in the Commonwealth. Located in Cook Forest are the original pines and hemlocks growing in a forest environment similar to that when the country was first settled.

Because of its primeval growth Cook Forest as become a virtual forest cathedral and thousands of vacationists are attracted to the area weekly.

Not only are the cabin accommodations the best in the State at Cook Forest, but the tenting area as well provides for a large number of campers who come to Cook Forest to camp out for several weeks.

More than 17 million bottle caps are made in the United States annually.

Battlefields Of Fourth Deplored

Fire Chief McIlwain Issues Warning To Use Precaution On Holiday

ACCIDENTS AND FIRES MAY RESULT

In an interview today, Fire Chief A. P. McIlwain urged residents of this city to make the coming Fourth of July a safe and sane holiday.

Chief McIlwain urged parents to use sense in the kind of fireworks they permit their children to have. If not, residents may see their children engaged in a noisy and dangerous celebration, which will resemble a veritable battlefield, with its toll of fires and injuries.

Each year's celebration of Independence Day brings a number of deaths from fireworks and firecrackers, and thousands of injuries, in addition to loss of property. From any of these injuries, tetanus may develop—the dreaded lockjaw.

While there is an ordinance prohibiting the sale and shooting of firecrackers within the city limits, they are sold promiscuously on the outskirts of town and are shot off illegally inside the city.

To those who feel their children must have a noisy celebration, he recommended the following precautions:

Clean your premises of all rubbish and papers.

Keep out in the open, away from buildings, when discharging fireworks.

Keep matches out of the reach of young children. Don't let them play with matches.

Warn children not to throw sparklers. They remain hot for some time and are very dangerous.

Be sure an adult supervises children who are discharging fireworks.

Caution children not to stand too close as fireworks are discharged.

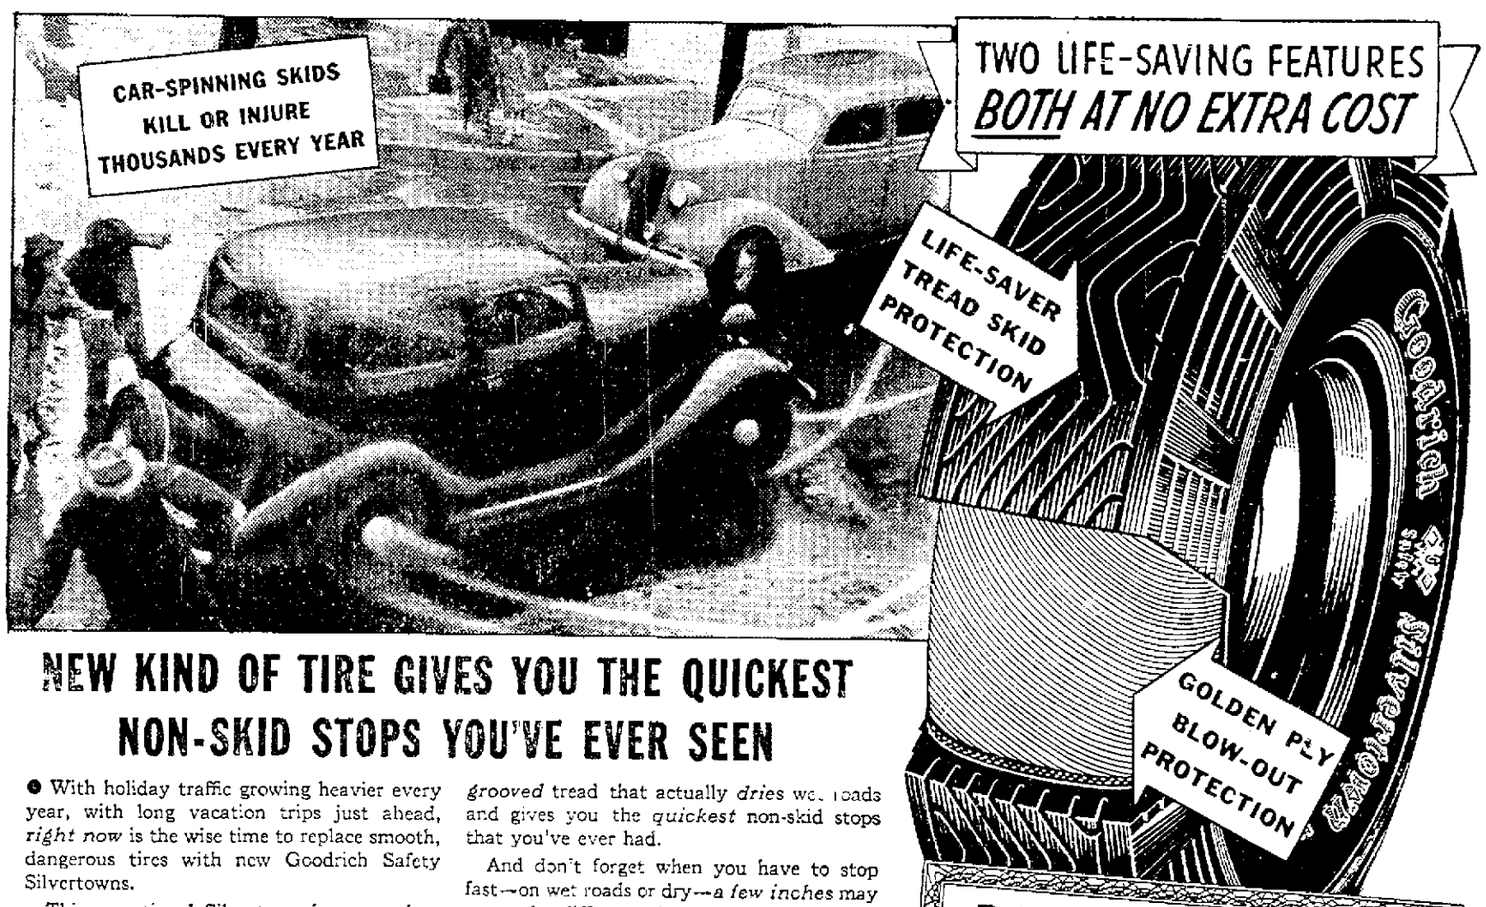

Warn children not to pick up fireworks that fail to go off. They might explode in their hands. This has happened many times, causing injury to hands, fingers and eyes.

Keep fireworks in a covered tin box until ready to use.

Call a doctor to treat wounds, because of possible infection.

At the conclusion of his interview Chief McIlwain said, 'Remember, that most Fourth of July accidents can be prevented and there are numerous ways of celebrating, without the danger to life and limb caused by fireworks.

"BOTH regular, and also the premium-priced tires of America's six largest tire manufacturers were submitted to a series of exhaustive road tests made over a three months' period by us to determine their resistance to skidding and wear, with the following results:

"NON-SKID—The new Goodrich Silvertown with the Life-Saver Tread gave greater skid resistance than any other tire tested, including those tires listed at from 40% to 70% higher in price.

"MILEAGE—The Goodrich Silvertown gave more non-skid mileage than any of the other tires tested in its own price range—averaged 19.1% more miles before the tires wore smooth.'

A mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. 25c. Stubbornly refuse anything else.

FOREIGN DEALER TAGS ARE BANNED ON COAST

HARRISBURG Secretary of Revenue J. Griffith Boardman cautioned Pennsylvania automobile dealers today against attempting to tour in California with Pennsylvania dealer license plates on their cars.

Boardman said that he has just received word from the California department of motor vehicles that enforcement officers there will stop all out-of-state dealers displaying their home state dealer plates and require the surrender of such plates and the purchase of California plates.

The ruling has no effect on regular passenger license plates and dealers planning trips to the coast will avoid embarrassment by securing the proper plates before starting.

Displays will also be presented in New Kensington, Pittsburgh, Sharpsburg, Youngstown (Sunday), Chicago, Ill., Fort Wayne, Toledo, O., Washington, D. C., Sharon and many other communities throughout the district.

Senator Gerald P. Nye Apparently Wins Renomination

North Dakota Senator Leads

Results Of Primary Vote On Tuesday Indicate Favor Of Party Voters

CAMPAIGN BASED ON STATE ISSUES

(BULLETIN)

(International News Service)

FARGO, N. D., June 29.—Though trailing with nearly half the state's precincts reported, Gov. William Langer today was slowly overhauling U. S. Senator Gerald P. Nye and the race for the Republican senatorial nomination appeared a toss-up.

The voting from 1,089 of the state's 2,260 precincts gave:

Nye 51,978
Langer 48,320

FARGO, N. D., June 29.—United States Senator Gerald P. Nye today was apparently sailing safely toward renomination.

Results from yesterday's Republican primary indicated a clear-cut victory for the veteran senator over Governor William Langer.

The voting from 613 of the state's 2,260 precincts gave:

Nye 39,864
Langer 25,717.

Although the campaign between the two was based purely on state issues, the outcome, it was believed, held interest for the New Deal. Two of President Roosevelt's supporters in the senate have endorsed Sen. Nye, who has often backed administration measures, despite his Republican affiliation.

The president made no commitments on the fight and it was unknown whether Nye would get administration support in the election if renominated.

The governor and Sen. Nye split five years ago after being political allies for many years. Nye has since charged Langer's administration is fraught with racketeering.

While the contest for the senatorship held the spotlight, a close race was developing in the balloting for governor. John N. Hagen, Langer's candidate, was running behind Lieut.-Gov. T. H. Thoresen, Nye's adherent. In 402 precincts the vote stood:

Thoresen 31,345.
Hagan 16,401.

In the main organization, O. C. Crawford, of Erie, and William Goodstein, of Pittsburgh, have been nominated for the post of department commander to succeed E. V. Whitman, Wilkes-Barre. Mrs. Ida Mittenzweil, of Philadelphia, lone nominee for the job as department commander of the women's auxiliary automatically succeeds Mrs. Margaret Mackey, Bellevue.

Graduate Of University Of Pennsylvania Establishes Office Here

J. ROBERT BROWN

J. Robert Brown, V. M. D., son of Frank C. It may be instinctive wisdom that makes men look at ankles. In other lands, where legs are heavy and ugly, wits are dull and heavy to match.

News Briefs From City Hall

City engineering department attaches reported this morning progress is being made on the Euclid avenue trench for the storm sewer. The flood waters recently caused no difficulty owing to the under-drain on pipe.

Edwin Lent of Edenburg was given a counterfeit half dollar last night. It was turned over to city police.

Street department attaches were informed today that a dangerous condition exists at Bluff and Etna streets owing to the recent heavy rainstorms.

Someone entered railroad cars on the east side and stole several strings of bananas and a crate of canteloupes, police were informed.

You may call it tolerance or sportsmanship when people stand and watch hoodlums wreck the town, but there's an uglier name for it.

(International News Service)

SAN ANTONIO, Tex.—It looked like intermittent electric power failure at St. Mary's university here the othe day as the classroom lights went on and off every hour. The bell which is rung to signify changing of classes disappeared in some mysterious manner. The bell-ringer, however, hit upon the expedient of switching the lights off and on to give the signal.

Are big corporations necessary? Well, what little fellow could spend $50,000,000 a year, as the big ones do, looking for new oil fields to supply the world's needs?

Resignation Of Monaca Minister Of Local Interest

Rev. Clarence Kerr Accepts Call To Third Presbyterian Church, Uniontown

ELLWOOD CITY, June 29.—Many local people will be interested to learn that Rev. Clarence W. Kerr, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Monaca, for the past 10 years, has tendered his resignation, to become effective on October 1, that he might accept a unanimous call to the Third Presbyterian church, Uniontown.

Rev. Kerr, a former moderator of Beaver Presbytery, has spoken often at the Ellwood City, Knox and North Sewickley Presbyterian churches and has many friends in this vicinity. Mrs. Kerr has had an active part in presbyterial activities and will speak in July to the women of the Knox church.

An outstanding young people's worker, Rev. Kerr was not an applicant for the Uniontown pulpit and knew nothing of their interest in him until recently visited by a pulpit committee from Uniontown.

The Third church, Uniontown, is the oldest and largest Presbyterian church in the city and the largest in the Presbytery, and one of the largest in the denomination. Its membership is listed as 1,446 and its average Sunday school attendance 900.

With his family Rev. Kerr will return on September 1 from a pilgrimage to Palestine and spend the month bringing his ministry to a close.

West Pittsburg Wins First-Half Title

Trim Red Sox For Thirteenth Straight Win

Capture City Baseball League Championship In Fast Drive 12 To 6

POWELL HURLS STEADY GAME

West Pittsburg baseball team, 1937 champs of the City Baseball league, last night won the first half championship of the 1938 race by defeating the New Castle Red Sox team 12 to 6 at Washington high field. It was the 13th straight victory for the West Pittsburg team.

"Dick" Powell and Tonsetic had the pitching assignment for the West Pittsburg team and held the Red Sox at their mercy after a wobbly first inning in which the Sox got two runs. The West Pittsburg team got to "Dutch" Updegraff for a lone marker in the first of the third and took the lead at 5 to 2 at the end of the fourth inning. Five more runs in the first of the sixth spelled disaster for the Red Sox and the finish of Mr. Updegraff's stay on the mound. He was relieved by Tommy Strausbaugh.

Kosier Stars.

Kosier was the big run-getter for the champions with four of the 12 runs to his credit. Davies featured the hitting for the Red Sox with a home run drive off of Powell. M. Marky had a triple and Porado had a double for the only other extra-base knocks.

West Pittsburg came up with a pair of runs in the first of the seventh to take a 12 to 4 lead, but the Red Sox rallied in their half of the seventh for two more runs. Tonsetic fanned nine men and Powell whiffed two.

Team Congratulated.

Manager Danny DeGenova is being congratulated on all sides today for bringing his team through to the first half title after losing the first two league games.

"Dinks" Campbell finished the game for the Red Sox. The West Pittsburg boys are deserving of the title, having no playing field of their own and being forced to play all of their games away from home.

City Softball Session Tonight

Plans Will Be Made For Second Half Of Season; New Players Signed Up

There will be a final meeting of the City Softball league managers and officials at the "Y" tonight to discuss the second half of the league season. The meeting will start at 8 o'clock and will be conducted by Franklyn R. Crisci, president of the league.

All managers must hand in their new player lists tonight. Old players released cannot sign up with any other team for the second half, it was announced.

All teams must see to it that they have their 18-inch rubber pitching slabs in place for the games on Friday night. This order by Mr. Crisci must be obeyed or the teams will lose their franchises. The Reiters and DeLuxe A. C. will be the new teams in the league for the second half.

Bethany Boxer On Fistic Card

Joe Gainer Has Been Matched To Meet Steve Morgan Friday Night

BLANK-KALUGER ALSO MATCHED

No doubt many of the boys who attend different colleges in the tri-state district will be present Friday night in the Grove Street playground to see Joe Gainer of Bethany, box Steve Morgan of Youngstown in one of the eight three-round amateur boxing bouts.

Gainer is reputed to be one of the best 155-pounders in college boxing. Morgan demonstrated upon one occasion here that he is rugged and no doubt there will be plenty of action when the 155-pounders clash.

There should be plenty of action in the Harold Blank of Youngstown-Mike Kaluger, of Follansbee bout. Blank is a classy boxer and Kaluger is said to be a good puncher and these two qualities augur for fast action.

Mickie Medwicks wound above an eye has closed and it is believed he will be able to step into the ring against Luke Smith of Follansbee who will be making his debut here Friday night.

Oleski vs Morinelli

The fans will also await the attempt to come-back by Tony Adamo. Several years ago he was one of the best looking welterweights in this vicinity and has been matched to fight Jimmy Stewart of Youngstown.

If Eddie Oleski of Follansbee lives up to his reputation there will be lots of action when he meets Johnny Morinelli of Youngstown. They are 112 pounders. Morinelli stopped Jimmy Scutelli of Oil City last Friday.

Ellwood City will send a delegation here to root for Benny Bartle against Frankie Karick. Benny is a rugged game chap and doesn't give ground and Matchmaker Tommy Leach expects a rather hectic scrap.

Leach is now arranging two more bouts.

Wampum Trails Bessemer Team

Not Much Chance Of Overtaking Lawrence Loop Leaders

First half of the Lawrence County Baseball league will come to an end July 1 when Hillsville plays at Wainpum, South Hills plays the South Side Merchants at Cedar street and the Capitolas oppose Bessemer at Bessemer. Bessemer's victory yesterday put them one game ahead of Wampum, which virtually gave Bessemer the first half championship. Should Wampum defeat Hillsville and the Capitolas beat Bessemer, a play-off would be necessary. However, with the Capitolas having dropped 12 of 13 games a play-off does not appear likely.

The Nobils will try hard to capture the second half of the league season just as they did the first-half. The Reds are expected to give the Nobils a lot of competition in the second half. So will the Spencers N. Y. A., Reiters and Tigers Club, be after the Shoemen.

There will be twelve teams this second half, the Reiters and DeLuxe A. C. franchises. There will be six games each night, with one team idle every playing date.

The card is a very attractive one and will no doubt produce some fast softball games this coming few weeks.

Reds Finally Trim Pirates In Pittsburgh

Johnny Van Der Meer Of No-Hit Fame Tames Pirates 5 To 2

INDIANS TRIP TIGERS 5 TO 4

By PAT ROBINSON
International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, June 29.—Baseball history is replete with cases of individuals and teams with strange holds over other players and teams.

Another long-standing jinx was ended yesterday when the Reds, who had lost 21 straight games in Pittsburgh (believe it or not, Mr. Ripley), finally turned on their tormentors and won, 5 to 2.

Cincinnati hadn't won a game in the Pirate stronghold since Aug. 11, 1936, and it took some masterly pitching by Johnny (double no-hit) Vander Meer to bring them down in front. The young lefthander let the Pirates down with six hits, only two of which were made after the second inning.

Trosky-Keltner Homer.

That was Johnny's ninth straight victory and his tenth of the season. He seems a good bet to win 25 this season.

Homers by Hal Trosky and Ken Keltner and some neat relief pitching by Johnny Humphries, enabled Johnny Allen to hang up his tenth straight victory for the Indians at the expense of the Tigers, 5-4.

The stumbling Cubs could get only seven hits off Lon Warneke and bowed to the Cardinals, 9 to 3. The Cards fell on Tex Carleton like a ton of bricks and rolled up seven runs in one luscious inning.

Radcliff's homer with two aboard in the ninth was the pay-off punch as the White Sox took a slugfest from the Browns, 10-9. All other games were washed out.

Lawrence Indies Defeat Pulaskis

Score Is 5 To 4 In City League Game At Cedar Street; Cemera Stars

The Lawrence Indies finished in second place in the City baseball league right behind the West Pittsburg team last night by taking a postponed league game 5 to 4 from the K. Pulaski team.

The game was featured by the double hit by Walter "Rudy York" Cemera the Indies classy outfielder in the sixth inning with the bases suffocated with Lawrence Indies boys.

Walter "Sheeny" Soho pitched a fine game for the Pulaskis, giving but five hits and fanned seven, but his mates had only four hits off of Majercin, Masajada, and Savage. Extra-base hits were made by Mateja, Cemera and Gaydosik.

Nobils-Radiators To Play Tonight In Benefit Game

Two Of City's Finest Will Tangle At Gaston Park, Expect Big Crowd

Everything is in readiness for the big Stan Lubenski benefit softball game at Gaston Park tonight at 6 o'clock that will bring together two of the finest softball teams in the city of New Castle—the Nobils, the first-half winners, and the National Radiators, last years champs.

To Help Young Boy

President Franklyn R. Crisci will be on hand to toss out the first ball in the big game that will count in the league standing although the second-half of the season does not open until Friday night. Mr. Crisci will also supervise the taking up of the collection. So far the Lubenski fund is $7.00. It is hoped that quite a nice sum will be realized tonight to help defray the expenses of the boy's unfortunate broken leg.

Manager Pete Amodie will probably start his ace hurler, either Sammy "Hook Ball" Pezzent or "Cannonball" Bishara. The Reds will more than likely counter with Greg Ross, a speed ball hurler.

Expect Big Crowd

Each team has won a game from the other this year and the third game tonight is going to be a "honey," so you had better be on hand.

In event of good weather upwards of 1,500 people will no doubt crowd the beautiful Gaston Park for the "rubber" game of the Reds-Nobils series.

Following are the probable lineups:

Nobils—		Reds—
Polonick	RSS	N. Ross
Cecilia	3RD	Goclano
Jones	LF	Hilton
DeCaprio	CF	Cooper
F. Copple	RF	Ambrosia
Deep	SS	Lockley
Rozak	1ST	Stone
S. Copple	2ND	Greene
Turro	C	Fornataro
Bisnara	P	G. Ross
Pezzente	P	Pascarella
Gairdo	P	?

Umpires assigned: Dom Costello, Red Kellar and Clem General of the City Baseball League. The services of the umpires has been donated.

Three Games Are Planned By Bears

Three games have been planned for this week and Sunday by the Wabash Bears softball team, William Dominick, manager, announced today.

Thursday evening the Bears will meet the fast Willow Grove team on the Liberty street field for a game.

Wednesday night the Bears will play the N. Y. A. team on the N. Y. A. field. Myers will pitch for the Bears, stated Dominick.

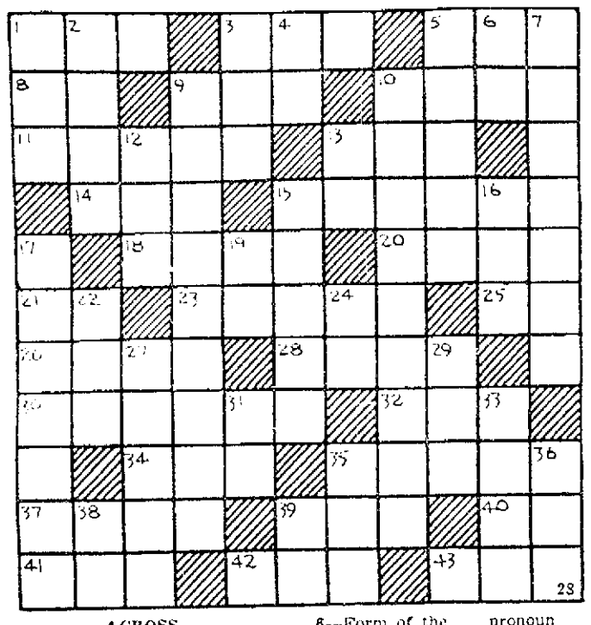

Sunday afternoon the Bears will motor to Niles O. where they will play the fast Buckeye A. C. team at Roosevelt field.

FROM ME TO YOU

By MESEEALL

Folks should be considerate of those with whom they deal . . . or have intention of dealing with . . . if one makes a promise to do a certain thing such as calling a person at such and such a time he should make it a point to do it when he gave his word . . . there is nothing that makes a person wonder funny things about his fellow man any quicker than when he brakes his promise . . . you will agree no doubt to these words . . . if you lend a person a bit of cash and he says "I will pay you back next Thursday", you expect him to do that very thing . . . and if he doesn't then you hold it against him . . . but if in the meantime he finds it impossible to pay the debt when agreed and tells you that due to some misfortune he will be unable to carry out the agreement . . . you will not feel nearly so hard . . . the lowest person in the world is the fellow who makes a promise that he has no intentions of fulfilling . . . are you guilty?

We see by yesterday's paper that the parking meters will become the property of the city within a very short time . . . and that the number we are buying is somewhat lower than the agreed contract . . . we have no comment.

* * *

Why do people do it? . . . get married and not say anything about it until six months or a year later . . . marriage is an honorable profession . . . where two can live as cheaply as one if one doesn't eat . . . and as we write a pal says . . . "I went to see the fortune teller last night and she told me that I was crazy" . . . we immediately said . . . do you mean to say that you let her get away with that . . . well, he said "She didn't exactly say it in those words, but she said I was going to be married three times".

* * *

We have a fellow in town who thinks that every idea concerning a new business means that that particular business will develop into a gigantic company . . . we hope that he does not take it too hard when these ideas turn out to be just other ideas . . . not casting any reflections on anyone but some people do use rather poor judgment sometimes.

* * *

If you would read this page and profit by what you read . . . (not this column) but the advertisements . . . you would really save money . . . may we say again . . . be wise classify-adize.

Market Shows Further Gains

Market Recaptures Boom Spirit As Profit-Taking Is Quickly Absorved

By LESLIE GOULD
International News Service Financial Writer

NEW YORK, June 29.—The stock market recaptured its boom spirit today after the interruption of the last two days.

New buying rushes swept the list from the opening, the one in the second hour sending the high speed ticker three minutes behind. The list forced ahead under this impetus, absorbing new profit-taking easily, and leaders ran up one to four points.

Blue chips scored the largest gains. DuPont led with a 4-point jump. Other large gainers included Westinghouse, up 4; Johns Manville 3, Eastman Kodak 3, and Philip Morris over 2.

Steels provided strong leadership as a group with Bethlehem and U. S. Steel up more than two points each.

Motor shares were likewise buoyant on reports of high optimism among auto makers and a big reduction in inventories. Chrysler spurted three points and General Motors a point.

Rails were heavily bought on setting of the date for the pay conferences. Gains ran to two points in Atchison and Union Pacific.

Farm implements scored advances running to two points. Coppers were in demand at rising prices, gains running to nearly two points in Kennecott. Mail order shares scored wide gains in sympathy with the spurt in farm implements.

U. S. Rubber rose easily in the tire division. Utilities, oils and aviations were better but their gains were considerably less than in other sections of the list.

Presbytery Action May Come July 9

Presbyterians Cite Rev. Fredericks Again; Hear Synod Reports

The Shenango Presbytery of the Presbyterian church, at an adjourned meeting Tuesday afternoon in Central Presbyterian church, for a third time cited Rev. Raymond J. Fredericks, former pastor of the Calvary Presbyterian church at East New Castle, calling upon him to appear before another special meeting of presbytery Saturday, July 9, to show cause why laws of the church should not be applied.

Rev. Fredericks' pastoral relations with the presbytery were dissolved a short time ago.

Reporting for the judicial commission in charge of the case was Dr. C. N. Moore, this city, its chairman.

Presiding over the presbyterial session was the moderator, Dr. S. A. Kirkbride of New Wilmington.

Rev. W. F. Byers, pastor of the Neshannock church, and Sherman McConnell, elder of the Rich Hill church, gave their reports on last week's session of the Pennsylvania Synod of the denomination at Beaver college, Jenkintown, Pa. Two others Dr. W. A. Wishart, Sharon, and Gerald Nord, Bessemer, will submit reports later.

Los Angeles Puts In Bid For Baer And Louis Fight

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, June 29.—Staging of a Joe Louis-Max Baer heavyweight championship fight in Los Angeles in September today took on firmer lines of reality following announcement by Eddie Mead, manager of featherweight and welterweight champion Henry Armstrong, that he had telephoned for seating plans of the Los Angeles Coliseum on the request of Twentieth Century Club Promoter Mike Jacobs.

"They are going to fly the plans in," said Mead. "It looks good."

Mead can devote all his time now to furthering the interests of "my friend" Tom Gallery, Los Angeles promoter, because the New York state boxing board yesterday agreed to a postponement of the lightweight championship match between Armstrong and Lou Ambers, originally scheduled for July 26, to August 10 at the Polo Grounds. Ambers asked for the shift to give an injured hand time to mend.

Rambling Around World Of Sports

A dash of this and a dash of that . . . congratulations to Angelo "Dykes" Monsey, New Castle Field Club pro, who reeled off a hole-in-one in the Pennsylvania State open in Pittsburgh . . . a rare feat, especially in district competition . . . Mickey Medwick, heavyweight, looks like one of the most promising boxers to come up in several years . . . Medwick is built a la Max Baer . . . Franklyn Crisci, one of the papas of softball here, figured out that more than 500 youngsters enjoy the game . . . he was formerly the Babe Ruth of mushball . . . after retiring, he stuck to the game, serving as manager and now heads several circuits . . . the name of Tom McMahon bobbed up in one of the higher magazines . . . Tom, who fought the best of them years ago, is mentioned in a story entitled, "Clear As a Bell"...amateur boxing, introduced here for the summer last Friday night, scored a decided hit . . . street corners hummed with activities today as folks talked about the coming bouts . . .

Mr. Rambling Reporter: . . . . now that the Schmeling-Louis fight is history, I would like to use some of this space to say a few words of praise in behalf of a young local ball player on the Mahoning A. A. ball club . . . this young and still growing lad is none other than Albert Monk Rainey, a twirler . . . yes, fans, he's not just a pitcher who takes his turn on the mound . . . but should Manager Mike Orlando get in a pinch, he has an all around player in Rainey . . . yes, he'll shag flies in the out-field or knock down grounders at any position in the infield . . . he'll bat with any of them . . . he is rated as one of the best hitters on the club . . . Albert Rainey deserves a little credit . . . if you haven't seen this lad play, watch for the next Mahoning A. A. game at home, E. and A. field . . . P. S. There's a rumor that Frank Dominick, who a few years ago pitched a 17 inning game at Alliance, Ohio, and lost when the bases were loaded and forced a run in to lose 4-3 before a large crowd, and Steve Hutnick, another former ace pitcher for the Mahoning A. A. may join the club again in entering the second half of the city league . . . thanking you for your time and space, I remain yours for bigger and better contributions. Nick Cangey...

Dashes and Dots . . . in a current magazine story, Jack Dempsey concedes Max Baer a chance to beat Joe Louis . . . the Manassa Mauler believes Max will be in there on account of his son . . . although Tony Lazzeri was hired to do his stuff on the Cub strategy board, he has played every position in the infield except the one he played with the Yankees—second base . . . in the recent Cleveland New York series, George Selkirk, hard hitting Yankees outfielder, took a swing at one of Johnny Allen's pitches, missed the ball and swung around so violently that he broke his bat while falling in the dirt . . . John Wilson, Redsox player, tried his luck as an infielder and couldn't make the professional grade, so he took up pitching and is doing O. K.

Most of the West Indian hurricanes begin over the warm seas between the West Indies and the coast of Africa. Probably they start as small eddies of air and gain momentum, due to differences in temperatures and air pressure, until they become gigantic whirls.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE—THE FAILURE

Anthropologist Describes Modern American Indian As 'Fun Loving, Spontaneous'

(International News Service)

PORTLAND, Ore., June 29.—The day has gone when a dirty blanket was the American Indian's entire wardrobe, and "ugh" and "how" constituted his entire vocabulary.

The modern Indian neither stalks around with arms folded across his chest and a dour expression on his face, nor converses in unintelligible grunts, according to Dr. Morris Opler, visiting anthropology professor at Reed college.

He is, instead, "fun loving and spontaneous."

Citing the Apache tribe of the Southwest in particular, Prof. Opler pointed out that its members have been described as "savage, bloodthirsty, predatory, taciturn, inflexible, immoderate" and by numerous other adjectives which fail to show their true traits.

Practical Jokers

They are enthusiastic practical jokers, he maintained, and the practice among tribesmen has neared "menacing proportions." Even the pun receives considerable usage. Young tribal members frequently are sent after "left handed monkey wrenches" by older members of the tribe, who roar with laughter when the joke is explained.

Such traits are not new among the Apaches, Prof. Opler said. In olden times, when the fearless warrior was the ideal of every tribesmen, one of the tribes most respected members was a certain wit and story teller who was admittedly "worthless" in battle.

Even tribal songs show the Apaches' "shrewd understanding of human foibles," he said, revealing that one song makes fun of a very young man who has fallen in love with a woman much older, the mother of several children.

"Whatever may have been the Apaches' deportment when they attended the white man's councils, where they knew they would come out second best, they are anything but sullen and withdrawn when alone," Prof. Opler declared.

Old Tammany Landmark Heads For Oblivion

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, May 31—Tammany's last monument and symbol of the Ring's greatest peculation the old county court house in the north end of the city hall, today awaits the wrecking crews of Park Commissioner Robert Moses.

The building erected seventy years ago when Tammany influence was at its height will be destroyed by the man who defeated the Tiger—Mayor La Guardia.

Built during the reign of "Boss Tweed" the most notorious member of the Tweed Ring, the building is now occupied by the Justices of the City Court.

The Courthouse cost the people of New York City $12,000,000 while the actual cost of construction is estimated at $3,000,000.

Boss Tweed died in jail owing New York City $6,000,000.

Bonfire Warning Issued By Wirt

HARRISBURG, May 25. — George H. Wirt, chief of the Commonwealth's Forest Fire Protection Bureau, in the Department of Forests and Waters, today issued a general warning to use precaution in destroying the spring accumulation of weeds, grass and other rubbish.

"I am sounding this general alarm again not only because I am interested in saving the state's forest land from destruction, but also because of the reported deaths and serious injuries resulting from fire this spring," Wirt said.

"Several persons have died as a result of burns this year, and several others are in a precarious condition. When not only valuable forest lands, but also lives are destroyed, then it is time that extra precautions be exercised."

Wirt, a veteran of the state's fire fighting forces, warned everyone to use every possible precaution in burning brush on a warm dry day. He said the wind currents created by the fire itself often lead to the fire getting out of hand.

"When a fire gets out of hand, even the smallest rubbish fire, the lives of those about the premises are immediately endangered because of the treachery of the 'red enemy'," Wirt stated.

In a petition filed with the court on Tuesday, District Attorney John G. Lamoree asks an injunction against the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company, restraining them from selling merchandise below cost.

Two specific items are mentioned in the petition, the sale of 10 bars of Fels soap at 39 cents, and 25 pound sack of sugar at $1.20. Both of these sale prices it is alleged are below the cost price as determined by the Fair Sales act of the Pennsylvania General Assembly.

The petition avers that numerous complaints have been received from independent merchants complaining of similar violations and it is asked that the company be restrained from future price cutting.

July 6 is set as the day for returning the petition and testimony will be taken.

In an order handed down by Judge W. Walter Braham, the recent petition of Anthony Naples for a parole from the Elmwood Home is refused. The order merely refuses the petition without giving any explanation.

Naples, a 12 year old boy was convicted of the slaying of Robert McDowell or Harris, a colored playmate in 1937. He was committed to the Elmwood Home for supervisory care.

After examining the law in the matter and getting an opinion upon it, County Treasurer V. I. Mandich announced today that the discount on county taxes would be good on August 1 instead of the last day in July. The tax cards say "5% discount if paid before August 1." The law says "if paid on or before August 1," and in the future taxes paid on August 1 will carry the discount.

These are interesting days in the county commissioners' office. Taxpayers who are receiving notices of liens on their properties are coming in with receipts and the cases are being checked up. Many taxpayers are amazed to discover they are charged with liens against their property when they have receipts to show. In such cases it will be a simple matter to clear the liens.

Only one clock in the court house was right on Tuesday, that in the prothonotary's office. Something went wrong with the electricity for a short time and the clocks stopped.

Taxes are beginning to come in in the office of County Treasurer V. I. Mandich. All this month and through August 1 there is a discount of 5 percent. Mr. Mandich asks that taxpayers get in as early as possible and thus avoid a jam during the last few days.

County Controller Frank W. Hill has prepared some record blanks which will be used in the financial affairs of the county in the future. In size they resemble a horse blanket but if used properly they will show where every penny comes, where it goes to, and what color hair the man had who paid the money. Well almost anyway.

Court room two is a pretty sight these days. All the law books from the law library are piled on the seats and every row is filled save half of the first row. Thousands of law books piled up, awaiting their return to the library after the prettying up process is over.
